A Walk in Antarctica

By David Erkam

Illustrated by
Diana Kizlauskas

 I will go on a walk.
I must wear warm things.
I walk and walk in the snow.

 I hike up on this tall, tall rock.
I stop, sit, and look as far as
I can.

🔊 From here I can spot a seal.
It is big, and its skin shines.
It looks at me.

🔊 From here I can spot the whales.
The whales swim in the water.
They look at me.

 From this rock I can spot the birds.
The birds look up.
They all look at me.

 I can see the penguins.
They walk tall.
They all call and call.

I call to them all,
“I like this place of ice, and
I like all of you!”
