

75. A Math Problem

She reads the math problem. “John has three apples. He gives one apple to Mary. He gives another apple to Billy. How many apples does John have?” She thinks. Three apples minus two apples is one apple. John has one apple. The answer is one. She shows her answer to the teacher. Her teacher smiles.