A seven-year-old girl died after she was allegedly drowned by a suspected burglar in her house in Khao Phanom district of Krabi on Tuesday.

Khao Phanom police chief Samran Ma-charoen took the suspect, Anisorn Jaikrachang, 25, before reporters on Wednesday.

At the press conference, several items believed to have been stolen from the house were displayed, including three mobile phones and a GPS device. Police were alerted to the incident at 6pm on Tuesday when villagers nearby helped overpower Mr Anisorn in the house.

The girl, Nada Kul-lang, or Nong Nada, was found in a critical condition and was pronounced dead later at Khao Phanom

Hospital.

According to a police probe, Mr Anisorn broke into the house shortly before Nong Nada came back from school.

Once the suspect saw the girl entering the house, it was highly likely he attacked her and pushed her head underwater in a tub, Pol Col Samran said.

Her uncle, Suret Kul-lang, 20, later encountered the burglar suspect when he arrived back home shortly after.

Mr Suret managed to subdue Mr Anisorn and called out for people nearby to help apprehend him.

Mr Anisorn will face charges of murder and theft, Pol Col Samran said.
